

FRANKLIN FURNACE

PRESENTS:

BUD A'S

PAWN of the PSYCOPATHS

MAY 17-
JUNE 15

Hi! I'm Trish, F.F. intern and go-fer extraordinaire. You may think all we do here at Franklin Furnace is pay girls every month to smear themselves with Glops of Peanut Butter using your hard-earned tax dollars. Well, in May, besides just the usual P.B.+ G. thing we're going to display a work of Monumental importance to the community.
So There.

BUDA

"BUDA" is bad news! No two ways about it. 1 time you're hooked. 7 times - you're insane. Abusers frequently report severe synapse damage, shot nerves, voices, bloody noses collapsed lungs, hallucinations, and "Flashbacks."

This "Art" must be recognized as the menace it is. We must know just why this "poop" is allowed to go on and on, tarnishing all in its gluttonous and stinking path.

The installation cost more than mere money. Sad to say, it costed human lives. This stuff is so dangerous, that many of our interns started sneaking some on the side. The exposure period was too much. One girl hit the skids so bad that she dropped her boyfriend, who went to Parsons, for a 14 year old Monosyllabic Graffiti Artist. Just to be closer to the stuff. Fortunately, for you, the viewer, our pain will be your salvation.

We've taken extreme security precautions with this installation. Most of it has undergone a complicated pasteurization process. Furthermore, if we have any money left over from our Jiffy and Peter Pan grants, there will be 4 emergency nurses on hand, and they all have fairly large breasts.. For your future safety and education, we highly recommend you attend this installation's opening on May 17, 1991, :

In the meantime, study this "illustrated text"
on "The Dangers of BUDA."

BUDA was accidentally developed in a high-school chemistry class just north of Pittsburgh, PA.

"Bill"

We were trying to develop a safe acne medication, when I accidentally spilled this rather innocent liquid on my forehead, I didn't think anything of it until I rode my bike home... colors were vivid, intoxicated joy... I started going to Art museums, and was reading...

Then I Beat my DOG

BUDA is
Be alert

called by many "street names" if anyone you love uses any of the lingo.

- "B"
- "Art"
- "the kind Bud"
- "Paint"
- "The Badassiest"
- "Truck"

I'M Addicted to BUDA,
I admit it

I can Finally admit it!

I'VE appreciated art for years

Wow, That painting is really well-hung!

OH..... it felt so good, like 10X more intense than an orgasm, so bright.
I felt I loved myself for the first time. So I BOUGHT SOME Drawings.

NOTHING Much, BUT Then it got bigger-paintings-murals
in my garage...

it wouldn't stop,
I needed more, always more..

a friend of mine says - "I heard of this new 'BUDA' stuff.

Anything to "get it."

The Bigger, the better.
Driving! pulsating!

it just got more intense.

Finally my Boyfriend said-

This has gone on long enough!
It's either me - or BUDA!

B...B...
BU... B...

I SOLD MY Answering machine, and then...

...And Then

That's okay dear
that's enough you're among friends

...And Then
I... I...

NOTED Psychopathologist
Dr. MARTIN "SKIP" RONCO:

Apparently BUDA circumvents
the heart, cuts straight to the spinal cord and goes straight to the brain, where it is psycho-
-active forever.

Q-TIP
7 times
and you're completely looney

What if your children came home with BUDA?

I'd ask them where they got it,
and I'd

Blow
'em away!

This is the criminal, deviate, bill-bucket and all-around crummy mastermind allegedly behind this "psychic candy"

These "people" should be shot.
